KidsFoundation Cookie statement

KidsFoundation uses cookies or similar technologies. Our cookies store information on your computer, tablet, or telephone and/or read out this information. In this cookie statement you can read which cookies we use and why this is useful for the functioning and improvement of our website.

Functional cookies

These cookies are necessary for the technical functioning of our site. We do not process personal data in our functional cookies. This is why we do not have to ask permission for these cookies.

Analytics cookies

These cookies collect data on the surfing behaviour of users of our website. Based on this data we can improve our website. Analytics cookies do not require permission either.

Third party cookies

The KidsFoundation website contains embedded elements. These are third-party documents, videos, or photos that you can see on our website. The way the Internet works does not always allow us to have an insight into the cookies used by third parties. We kindly ask for your understanding in this matter.

Remove cookies?

You can remove cookies at any time. This is very simple. Click on one of the browsers below to go to your browser's manual. Please note: after removing the cookies you may have to set your preferences again for some websites or log in again.
